Leader Places Whole Faith In Protection

Doesn't Want to Be Elected at All Unless on Tariff Programme, Declares Mr.
Meighen

H.B. Railway Offer Held Gross Affront

West Told Construction Depends on Votes and Not on Rights, Charges Conservative Chieftain

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Sept. 29.—(Sixty-three) "There is one cause I have to appeal on. That cause I believe in tonight. If I cannot be elected on it, I don't want to be elected at all."

Thus spoke Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen in addressing the conference of the Hudson's Bay Railway Commission on the question of tariff protection.

"That cause I preached to the people in 1921 and I still believe it is the main question now before this public," he said.

There might be other questions before the electorate but they should not be allowed to obscure the main issue.

A "Gross Affront"

As for the Hudson's Bay Railway construction, he said, there had never been "a grosser affront," to the people of Western Canada than Premier King's offer at Neepawa last night, which, he said, was practically a promise of a bribe that if Western Canada would send back enough Liberal supporters to the House of Commons he would appropriate enough dollars to complete the railway.

"Where could there be a greater affront," he asked, "than the suggestion that the completion of the Hudson's Bay Railway depended on the vote of Western Canada and not on the right of Western Canada?"

The problem of the Hudson's Bay Railway was one which could not be turned into a political football, he said. The whole question would require consideration from every angle and could not be disposed of lightly.

Similarly the problem of freight rates must be considered by the railway commission appointed to decide on freight rate structures on the advice of its experts and when a final decision was reached it must provide a rate basis which would distribute the cost of transportation equally over the whole Dominion.

An executive meeting was held necessitated by the size of the crowd which turned out to hear the Conservative leader, and Mr. Meighen repeated his speech at a second meeting in a picture theatre.

Press Conference Opens in Australia

Communications Cost Must Come Down, Says Premier—Lord
Burnham President

MELBOURNE, Sept. 29.—Lord Forster, Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, at the opening of the Imperial Press Conference here today, emphasized the importance of the Empire's communications to the British Empire and Australia.

Premier Stanley M. Bruce referred to the importance of the Empire and the matters to be discussed at the conference. He said that in his view
the most important subject to come before the conference would be Empire communication. The Australian Government, the Premier said, desired
to see the cost of communications reduced to the lowest possible point.

Premier Bruce described the recent migration agreement between the British and Australian Governments as the greatest step ever taken to solve the problem of the better distribution of the Empire's population. This agreement, which was entered into in April last, aimed at the settlement in Australia within ten years of 450,000 assisted emigrants from Great Britain, including 34,000 families averaging five persons each.

Lord Burnham was re-elected president of the conference by acclamation.

Snow and Sleet Fall Throughout Prairie Regions

WINNIPEG, Sept. 29.—Winnipeg laid its first grip on this province today. Snow began falling early in the evening in Winnipeg, and conditions were typical of those prevailing in other sections of the province. The temperature hovered around the freezing point.

SASKATOON, Sept. 29.— Snow started to fall here at 9 o'clock this evening, and it means another stoppage of threshing in the district. Kinderley, Punnelly, Craik and Rosetown report snow and sleet.
Prince Albert and North Est-ford report clear weather.

Custody of Daughter Awarded Ontario Man

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Six-year-old Shirley Cooke was today awarded by the superior court to her father, James Cooke, Ontario attorney, after a long-drawn-out legal battle between the parents of the child for possession. Mrs. Cooke, recently disappeared, supposedly with the child, as she did not respond to a court summons. She was reported to have been last seen in Reno.

All police officers in California and Nevada have been asked to keep a lookout for the mother and child.

Premier Repeats Portfolio Offer

Saskatchewan Prime Minister Goes to Cabinet If Government Is Returned

STADIUM, REGINA, Sept. 29.— Premier Dunning of Saskatchewan announced that he was his intention to have a minister of immigration devote his whole time to immigration and he expressed his hope and desire that the portfolio would go to a Western man.

He indicated his intention to invite Premier Dunning of Saskatchewan to join his cabinet after the election. He would like Saskatchewan to have two ministers in the cabinet, and he said:
"I may venture to ask the good people of Saskatchewan to allow me to take to the wider councils of this nation the Premier of Saskatchewan."

"I want the West to have adequate cabinet representation, provided the West send me the following out of which I can make adequate representation," warmly proceeded the Premier.

"You must choose. You cannot have your cake and eat it. If you prefer Western Canada to send to Parliament a group of men who are not going to help the administration, who are going to say 'We are better than you, we will stand apart, we will keep away from the rest of you'
—you cannot expect the cabinet to be made up of men who are not going to help the administration. To this plea of Premier King was added a similar plea by Premier Dunning of Saskatchewan.

Germany Is Informed Only Security Is to Be Discussed at Locarno

PARIS, Sept. 29.—The French and British (Germans) in the Locarno conference here today, emphasized the importance of the Empire's communications to the British Empire and Australia.

Premier Stanley M. Bruce referred to the importance of the Empire and
the matters to be discussed at the
the most important subject to come
before the conference would be Empire communication. The Australian

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 29.—Robert M. La Follette, Jr., son of the late senator from Wisconsin, was elected to succeed his father in the United States Senate by the voters of Wisconsin today. With only 518 precincts to be heard from out of the 2,692 in the state, La Follette was leading Edward F. Dillmar, independent Republican, by 120,101 votes.
Returns from 2,175 precincts gave La

Liquor Sleuths Placed on Trail Of Pocket Flasks

HONOLULU, Sept. 29.—Prohibition enforcement in Hawaii took a new turn today with announcement of officials that "under cover" agents had been engaged and would be employed hereafter.

Seven secret agents will don evening clothes and attend leading social functions.

Other men will trail prominent citizens carrying hip pocket flasks in the hope that the trails will lead to the doors of their favorite hootcheries.

It was declared that the programme would be a permanent one, and that efforts would be made to give publicity to the names of liquor buyers as well as those of liquor sellers.

Mill Progress Is Favorable

Rapid Change in Landscape at Great Central Lake—Other Enterprises Progress

Excellent progress is being made on the Great Central Lake sawmill at the lagoon at Great Central Lake, where a mill, offices and camp is under construction. It is expected that the mill will be ready to cut the end of this year, considerably ahead of the first estimate.

Designed originally to cut 75,000 feet, it is expected that the daily capacity will be much more when the mill is brought into use. Machinery is being assembled and steady progress is being made with construction of the mill.

It is expected that the great mill at Cheminus will be operating soon.
Work of construction, which has been going on for several months, is now nearing the end. Extension of the telephone service at the plant is in hand.

The sawmill under construction for the Great Central Lake, near the lagoon at Great Central Lake, is progressing satisfactorily, and is expected to cut 20,000 feet a day from the limit across the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway track. A wharf will be built for waterborne shipments.

The Grexer Shingle Mills, Limited, has taken over the business carried on by Little Brothers at the shingle mill at the bottom of Argyle Street, Port Alberni. The new management has started with one shift, but two shifts will be commenced shortly.

Body Found in Bush Still Unidentified

VANCOUVER, Sept. 29.—Identifying the skeleton of a man found in the bush of Surrey municipality, near the New Westminster Bridge, Monday, has not yet been made. The man had been buried in a shallow grave of a drygoods store in Saint John, N.B. The remains are believed to be those of a person about sixty years of age, five feet nine inches in height and of rather heavy build. The man died, it was said, four years, in the opinion of Dr. F. Sinclair.

Saklatvala Protest May Disturb Parley

Parliamentarians' Council Approves U.S. Action, But Trouble Threatens

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The controversy over Shapurji Saklatvala, Communist member of the British Commons whom the State Department barred from this country, today interrupted proceedings of the Interparliamentary Union's council and threatened to prevent its when the Washington session opens Thursday, although the council tonight did everything within its power to end the incident over the Anglo-Indian radical.

Acting on a protest from Saklatvala against what he called the "extraordinary step taken by the United States Government in revoking his passport visa, the council adopted resolutions declaring "it recognizes that the American Government has a right to enforce its own laws and therefore cannot discuss merits or demerits of the case."

With the British delegation of forty almost unanimously backing Secretary of State Kellogg's action in revoking Saklatvala's American visa, officials of the Union, who presented the hope that nothing more would be heard of the matter.

From other sources it was learned,
however, that there still was a possibility of the incident being raised in Washington in order to pacify radical labor elements in the British parliament.

Commissioner Leaves for East

WINNIPEG, Sept. 29.—L. H. Boyd, chairman of the Board of Grain Commissioners, in company with Commissioner James Robinson, of the Beard, and F. C. T. O'Brien, Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce in the Federal Government, left here tonight for the coast. They will proceed via Saskatoon, Edmonton and Prince Rupert.

Labor Party Puts Up Bars Against Reds

Resolution Against Either Affiliation or Individual Membership Carried Overwhelmingly at Convention

Communists Told to Form Own Group

Civil War Impossible Aim for Labor Organization, Former Premier Ramsay
MacDonald Declares

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 29.—In an uncertain way the Parliamentary Labor party, in conference here, tonight registered its refusal to countenance the admission of Communists to the party. The executive comtee's resolutions against either affiliation or individual membership were carried by majorities of about nine to one, the first vote being 2,544,000 to 221,000.

Ramsay MacDonald, former Labor premier, put the matter quite plainly in declaring that the admission of Communists to the party would mean that the workers should prepare, not for an easy parliamentary victory, but for victory by a heavy fight. He said that the Communists were not to be admitted to the party because they had already been treated generously in being allowed to permeate the Labor party to the extent that they had.

Excludes Nobody

Arthur Henderson explained that the resolution against individual admission excluded nobody, but was only an appeal to the member to refrain from something.

J. Bromley, for the opposing camp, said the resolution meant the beginning of heresy in the ranks of the trade unions.

Ramsay MacDonald and J. H.
Thomas, who was a member of the MacDonald cabinet, had to listen to

Two Bodies Brought Up From Submarine

Divers Still Struggling With Hulk of S-51 on Floor of Atlantic

U.S. SUBMARINE BARE, New London, Conn., Sept. 29.—The struggle to bring up the hull of the submarine
S-51 was still on tonight, four days after she was sent to the ocean's bed when rammed by the City of Rome.

Two bodies were brought up from the sea today, the first of the three men who went down with her that the undersea craft had given up.
They were found by deep-sea divers who crawled through the tangled mass of wreckage surrounding the vessel and entered one of the compartments.

The bodies recovered were those of John L. Gibson, engineer, first class, of Portland, Ore., and William Charles Teachman, seaman first class, of Hampar, Pa. The latter, a youth of nineteen, was a twin. His brother is believed to have been at the helm of the S-51, and to have been washed overboard when she went down.

Just what part of the submarine was entered by the divers was not made clear in the messages from Hear-Admiral H. H. Christy in command of the rescue workers. The most generally accepted belief was that they went through the battery compartment hatch, just forward of the conning tower. The battery compartment was filled with wreckage, the mess hall had been smashed, and the door leading to the control cabin was open. Whether the door leading to the torpedo compartment was closed or not, could not be determined.

Fire Damages School

VANCOUVER, Sept. 29.—A spectacular fire tonight did several thousands of dollars damage to a private school for girls in Burnaby Street.
Ten girls in the three-story building when flames broke out in the attic all made a safe exit. The attic and roof were destroyed and considerable damage done by smoke and water.

Comox-Alberni's Federal Member Is Called a Camouflaged Liberal

Mr. Ladner, Conservative Member for South Vancouver in Last Parliament, Quotes From Records of Commons as Proof of Charge Against Independent

COURTENAY, Sept. 29.—The Conservative campaign against Mr.
A. W. Neil, independent member for the Island riding of Comox-Alberni in the last Dominion Parliament, was launched here tonight before a crowd of some 200 persons. Various speakers, including Mr. Thomas D. Caldwell, the Conservative candidate, and Mr. Leonard O'Brien, present member in the last Parliament for South Vancouver, showed Mr. Neil little mercy in their attacks on his record. Mr. George O'Brien, president of the Comox-Alberni Conservative Association, was also a speaker. Mayor Duncan, of Courtenay, was chairman of the meeting.

Mr. Caldwell made a very favorable impression on his audience, and gave evidence of being the kind of fighter that wins elections. He appreciated, he said, the honor the Conservatives of the riding had given him by naming him their candidate, and declared

Tacoma Fire Damages Box Company's Plant

TACOMA, Sept. 29.—Fire early this morning destroyed twenty-one dry kilns of the Pacific Box Company, with a loss of $75,000. Several small buildings of the company and large quantities of lumber were burned. The fire for a time threatened to spread to other industries on the tide flats area, and all available fire companies were sent to the scene.

Big Bush Fire Burns Bridges

Camps Threatened by Eight-Mile Blaze in Lower Mainland

PORT HANEY, Sept. 29.—Around 600 men were pressed into service at a late hour tonight in efforts to stem a huge fire spreading over logged-off lands in the limits of the Abernethy and Loughheed Logging Company north of Port Haney.

The fire, stated to be the most serious occurring in the Lower Mainland this summer, is now burning along an eight-mile front. Two small bridges have been lost, but efforts of the fire crews have so far been successful in saving the three camps, equipment and green timber.

The fire has now reached such extensive proportions that with a high wind, the fire crews would be powerless to keep it within the fire lines.
Locomotives are hauling tank cars loaded with water day and night to the scene of the fire, the reflection of which is seen in the sky for miles around.

B. C. to Get Zinc Reduction Plant

British Company Formed to Operate in Kootenays—Rights to Process Acquired

VANCOUVER, Sept. 29.—British Columbia is to have a large new zinc reduction plant in the Kootenays. It was learned today by the B.C. Chamber of Mines.

Acquiring from the Metals Extraction Corporation, Limited, the sole use of its process of recovering zinc and other metals from raw ore, the Canadian Metals Extraction Co., Ltd., has been formed and financed in London to open in this Province, drawing its ores from Kootenay and surrounding districts.

Liberal Is Leading In Prairie Election

MEDICINE HAT, Sept. 29.—With thirty-five out of sixty-five polls heard from at 9 o'clock tonight, the candidate in the provincial by-election of this district stood as follows: Hendricks, Conservative, 929; McCoombs, Farmer-Labor, 888; Pringle, Liberal, 1,501. Liberal majority are claiming the election of their candidate and declare that the remaining polls to be heard from will not alter the results.

VICTORIA'S WATER PROBLEM

The text of the petition which is to be presented to the Legislature against the expropriation of the Esquimalt Waterworks was printed in our columns on Sunday last. It contains statements which should be the duty of the municipal authorities to controvert. It is, in fact, based on inadequate knowledge and we would strongly caution all property owners to refrain from signing it until they have in their possession full information on the situation. In the meantime, and, indeed, without any delay, the City Council should lay before the public all information which will go to show that a real necessity does exist why Victoria should be in possession of an additional source of water supply.

In the text of the petition noted it is said that the city of Victoria has a water supply far in excess of the city's requirements and sufficient for a population of at least 200,000 people. Whatever was the original estimate of the number of water users that the Sooke Lake would supply with the existing plant, experience has proved that it is not 200,000, and, indeed, it falls very short of that mark. The peak consumption governs the minimum capacity of pipe required. The capacity of the Sooke Lake flowline into Humpback reservoir in summer is not over 18,000,000 gallons per day. The flow from Humpback on June 27 of this year was 11,680,000 gallons, so that the present excess over use is 6,320,000. During the past three years the "peak daily use" has increased at the annual rate of 750,000 gallons. A simple estimate shows that if this rate of increase continues then in about eight years' time the full capacity of the present Sooke works will have been reached.

If the rate of water use by Victoria and vicinity continues to grow, as it is growing, then within six years' time, and that is to say two years before the full capacity of the existing Sooke Lake works is in use, the city would have to contemplate and arrange for new works. In fact, in six years' time construction would have to commence. The cost of the present flowline pressure line was $1,891,000. If it had to be duplicated there would have to be an addition to that cost of at least 40 per cent for material and labor, or a sum of $750,000, which, added to the present cost, would mean that a sum somewhere in the neighborhood of $2,647,000 would have to be spent if it were decided to go to Sooke for a further supply of the same capacity provided by the existing works. That, in every probability, would be the expenditure faced by the city in six years' time and it might be faced even earlier if the growth of this district and the surrounding community should become accelerated for any cause.

With full knowledge of the probabilities of the future the city has expropriated the Esquimalt Waterworks. Goldstream can furnish a minimum of 10,320,000 gallons daily, so that its value as compared with going to Sooke for duplication purposes is $750,000 less. The acquisition of the Esquimalt Waterworks postpones any necessity of going to Sooke for an additional supply for at least fifteen years, and, therefore, interest and sinking fund is probably saved on an expenditure of $2,647,000 for a period of nine years. Victoria has not got to pay any money out for capital expenditure in the purchase of the Goldstream works. The revenue now being derived from the sale of water from Goldstream will meet the obligations under the terms of the expropriation. It is a simple matter for anyone to figure out what the city will save in the long run. It will avoid, for one thing, having to engage in a capital expenditure of upwards of two and a half millions within eight years' time. That is a most important consideration. It has been overlooked through lack of knowledge on the part of those who prepared the petition against the expropriation that it is proposed to present to the Legislature.

THE CALL TO QUEBEC

Mr. E. L. Patenaude, of Quebec, who is a Conservative candidate in the Jacques Cartier division, has been specific about the policies he will support if elected. On Protection he told those who offered him the nomination that, "if any man establishes in this country an industry, a business or a farm that he exploits for the benefit of the country and his people, he has a right to ask for the protection that will enable him to continue his industry, his commerce or his farm, without having to meet foreign competition that will ruin him." In the matter of the natural resources of the country, he says "We should direct our policy in such a way that wood would be made into pulp and paper in Canada for the benefit of Canada. The asbestos and nickel that belong to us should meet the same fate. We should direct our policy at once in an absolutely all-Canadian sense."

Regarding the railways, Mr. Patenaude is also very emphatic, in one particular at least. He says in this respect: "There is only one thing to do. If the people want to keep the railways (Canadian National Railways) they must separate them completely, entirely and absolutely from politics and give them to a board of directors the same as the shareholders of a private company choose." Mr. Patenaude makes his belief clear that because of the various problems of the country and their handling during the last few years there is uneasiness existing and disquiet reigns in business and in the public mind. He believes that this disquiet will find vent in Quebec's verdict in the present campaign. He believes that Quebec will voice a feeling that the country should be free of the policy that the situation demands. He asks Quebec, and he is a powerful factor there, to "let the party spirit fall for an instant and let us rise to the height of the national interest. Then we can resume, with the faith of our forefathers, the moral and material edification of our country."

TAXATION IN CANADA

We are asked to believe that the country has been prosperous under the Government of Mr. Mackenzie King although the income tax returns that that Government show that in three years' time the assessed incomes in Canada available for taxation have diminished by $370,000,000, while Federal taxation has increased by $22,000,000. The Federal taxes collected by the Dominion Government in 1922 were $320,000,000; in 1923, $335,000,000, and in 1924, $342,000,000. How taxation has grown in certain directions is illustrated through the operation of the sales tax and tax on cheques, etc., which have increased as follows: 1922, $73,000,000; 1923, $106,500,000; 1924, $120,700,000. It is estimated that in this Dominion out of every dollar earned one-fifth, or twenty cents, goes to pay Federal taxation. This is a burden greater than that borne by France with her tremendous war debts.

In the United States, under a highly protected system of industrial expansion, the taxation is being reduced rapidly and the National Debt is being liquidated. There is a notable instance in the difference in taxation which prevails in the two countries. In the United States the income tax on a married man without children who has an income of $4,000 is $10; in Canada it is $40. On an income of $5,000 in the United States the tax is $50; in Canada it is $120. The burden of taxation is driving people out of the country to more favored lands in a taxation sense. The policies of the present Government at Ottawa, and its dependence on the Provinces for support offer no hope of relief. The people, however, will have the remedy in their own hands on October 29.

The American returns of Canadian immigration into the United States through border points east of North Dakota show that there entered during the three years for permanent residence a total of 413,500, divided as follows: in the year ending June 30, 1923, 88,500; in the year ending June 30, 1924, 200,000, and in the year ending June 30, 1925, 125,000. This exodus is the fruit of the Mackenzie King policies for the so-called benefit of Canada's industrial life.

Commenting on the platform announced by Mr. E. L. Patenaude, the Conservative candidate in Jacques Cartier, The Montreal Star says: "He looks at the problem, naturally, from within Quebec. He is chiefly alarmed for Quebec. He wants to keep Quebec the individual, distinct and high-minded community it has long been. He demands that there should remain a spiritual and mental as well as political difference between Canada and the United States. He does not want us to be annexed, either in soul, in thought, in reading, in assessing our values of life, or as a political entity. Surely we are all with him in that. And surely we all know that four years nearer the consummation of the publicly-announced ambition of the late Speaker Clark (United States) who declared in 1911 'We are preparing to annex Canada'."

In the past three years Canada has purchased from the United States $673,000,000 in excess of our sales to the United States. Under adequate protection a very considerable percentage of that money could be kept in the country. During the present year Canada has already made the following purchases from the United States: Coal, anthracite and bituminous, $58,000,000; iron, rolling mill products, machinery and electrical appliances, $181,000,000; motor cars and parts, $27,000,000; agricultural and vegetable products, $80,000,000; fresh fruits, $18,000,000; dried fruits, $5,000,000; lumber, $7,000,000; wood manufactured, $7,000,000; boots and shoes, $725,000. The policy of the Mackenzie King Government is to encourage importations from the United States and thus make this country the poorer in money and employment.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

The Esquimalt Board of Trade has made an interesting "gesture." When any important governing or deliberating body in the world makes a suggestion nowadays, that suggestion is always described as a "gesture." Consequently the Esquimalt Board of Trade has made a friendly "gesture" in the direction of Victoria.

That friendly "gesture" is such an unusual incident in the history of Victoria's relations with her suburban neighbors that it is worthy of special and extended comment. We expect that Reeve Macnicol, when he reads about it, will hasten down to Esquimalt and inquire of the responsible authorities what is meant by it. The elected chief of Saanich Municipality apparently believes that the destiny of Victoria and the municipalities which encompass her about is forever to remain slender. If we wrong the Reeve in this assumption, he will speedily correct us, for Mr. Macnicol, after the manner of the race from which he springs, is very positive in his opinions and extremely disputatious in defence of those opinions.

If the friendly "gesture" Esquimalt has made in the direction of Victoria should result in a happy and profitable union, one phase of the water question will be permanently settled. In that case we suppose the few people in Esquimalt who shudder visibly at the thought of the waters collected by Victoria and the waters collected by Esquimalt from practically the same watershed being mingled together would be reconciled to the alleged calamity.

If a union were effected the rights of the people of Esquimalt and the rights of the people of Victoria would be common rights. Consequently there would be nothing for the people of the two municipalities to quarrel about and nothing to fight for. Saanich could not then appeal to Esquimalt to throw down the gage of battle to a common foe. That would leave Reeve Macnicol in a state of isolation, for a strong "entente" already has been established between Victoria and Oak Bay. That is what makes the situation so interesting to us as lovers of peace and harmony and unity and fraternity amongst neighbors whose manifest destiny it is to cordially co-operate in the achievement of a common purpose.

"We realize that in this matter we are breaking highly controversial ground. We shall be told by a considerable number of people that such a thing as the union of Esquimalt and Victoria municipalities can never be accomplished. We shall be told that the consummation of such a union would be bad for Esquimalt and worse for Victoria—there is probably no place in the world where relative to population there are so many people who oppose things as there are in Victoria and the surrounding districts. If the question of union should ever pass from the realm of discussion to the theatre of action, we expect to read about circulation of petitions and applications for injunctions. And wouldn't the people who write letters to the editors of the newspapers have a busy and an interesting time!

Being of a naturally optimistic, not to say enthusiastic, temperament, we believe that a union of Esquimalt, Oak Bay and of the suburban fringe of Saanich with the City of Victoria would solve many somewhat harassing problems—problems of water supply, problems of fire protection, problems of education, problems of sanitation, and problems of general administration. And the problem of the relations of the suburban districts of Saanich with the rural districts of Saanich is the most perplexing problem of all. The farmers of Saanich believe they are suffering injustice under the existing conditions and are clamoring for relief. Would the erection of additional municipalities in the neighborhood of Victoria solve the problem that confronts the people of Saanich?

We observe that our neighbors on the Pacific Coast of the United States also are wrestling with perplexing problems. There are probably more "peculiar people" in the United States than there are in Canada, allowing for numerical differences in population.

One of the pupils attending school in Seattle refused to salute the flag. The people of the United States attach a great deal of importance, possibly too much importance, to salutation of the flag, which, after all, is but a formal piece of business. The refractory youth was forced to attend school and compelled to salute the flag. Such a piece of formalism is not likely to make the boy a better or more loyal citizen after he attains the stature of a man.

Then the parents of the obstinate boy were haled before a magistrate and charged with the offence of refusing to send three of their children to school. The defence was that the children might as well be compelled to bow down to graven images as to salute the flag of the United States. The parents declared that they refused "to split their allegiance between the flag and Jehovah God. God's kingdom is the only government we recognize. Patriotism is a narrow hatred of other people. We'd rather our children did not go to school at all than be taught patriotism. Besides, Jehovah is going to let all the nations and creeds fight it out at Armageddon, Idaho, before the year is out." What is the use of trying to reason with people who believe that the world will come to an end before the year is out? Our Doukhobors were not quite so fantastic as that in their theological ideas.

Saanich Assessments
Sir.—A letter appeared in your Sunday's issue signed I. Somers, touching on taxation in Saanich, which I hope caught the eye of the taxpayers. The present method of assessment is most unjust, and I must say that the Reeve has stultified himself if he has gone back on taxation of improvements, as he once acknowledged to me that this was the only way to even things up. It is a pity that the fact that those residents in the suburbs of the city are setting off with about one-third of what they should pay. Ward 6, once took the matter up, and advocated a change whereby each ward should assume the cost of the upkeep of its own streets, and when the time will come when we shall get a new assessment in Saanich.

3-Minute Journeys

By TEMPLE MANNING

Where the Inhabitants Worship a Mountain

When dawn breaks over Fuji-yama in Japan, it usually finds a number of pilgrims standing on a kneeling atop the sacred mountain, their attitude depending upon their religious convictions.

Every devout Japanese makes at least one pilgrimage to the mountain of ash, crags and lava. August and September are the most popular months for this journey. Before daylight the pilgrims begin their ascent to Konagamine, the highest point in Japan, there to await the rising of the sun. As the orb appears the natives greet it devoutly with chants and with rubbing of rovaries.

What foreigners see is Fuji, standing in bland repose against a flaming sky. Graceful, majestic, inspiring and sublime, this volcano presents a spectacle that is both weird and sublime. It is only of late years that women have been allowed to make the pilgrimage. There was an old superstition among the natives that the goddess who rules the mountain is exceedingly jealous, and if another woman came to ascend her heights fearful storms will overtake the party; nothing can appease the wrath of the temperamental goddess until the pilgrim has been sent back where she belongs. However, an Englishwoman defied convention, and after her party went up and down the mountain, she returned armed, other women have since dared.

Full-yama is seventy miles south-west of Tokyo. As a rule the pilgrimage begins at Gotemba, a town thirty miles from the summit. The first hours of the journey are made across flower-covered plains, and until fatiguing climb upward begins, all is well. Meagre meals of hard cakes, raw fish, unseasoned rice and green tea are secured from the stations along the way. There are small huts, where the traveler sits around a table to eat their scanty food and then lie in a row on the floor to rest if perchance, night finds them there.

The last two thousand feet are the hardest. The soil is loose and the ashes and cinders make walking almost impossible. At the foot of the mountain every pilgrim is given a wooden staff—in exchange for six yen. After the ten stations are passed and the weary journey is at an end, the priest at the summit bestows his blessing and leaves his mark upon the staff. Full-yama, Kus-yama, or Full-san, has inspired artists, poets and journalists from every nation to express in their own language the magnitude of its scenery, the intensity of its beauty, the grandeur of its appearance, and the spirit which hovers around its cone-shaped peak.

Error Days

The Daily Tribune, of Hastings, New Brunswick, has a lineotype operator, Jack P. Turley, who recently turned out a whole day's string without making a single mistake. He not only made the string, but he also set it, and came about two weeks apart. In between times his corrections ranged from two to twelve a day.

Turley made these records on an ancient and honorable Model 15. On one of the perfect days Turley's lineometer registered 1,672 lines, and the string was set in eight hours. What other newspapers can offer a candidate for the "Errorless Day Club?"

So well did Henry Cameron, foreman of The Tribune composing room, think of Turley's good work that he ran a story in the paper as follows: "There is a new club in Hastings, but so far it has but one member. There are potential members wherever lineotype is in operation, but so far as known Mr. Turley, a member of The Hastings Tribune lineotype crew. Is the only man to qualify in the new organization, which will be known as the 'Errorless Day Club.'"

"On two different occasions Turley turned out a whole day's string of type without a single mistake. On one day he set 1,672 lines of ready matter and on another day 1,718 lines. As there are an average of thirty-five letters and spaces in a line, this means that Turley hit the keys of the lineotype approximately 58,000 times without an error. His two errorless days came about two weeks apart. Had they come together he could be credited with 114,000 strokes without a mistake. "Like the prototype, the 'Helo' in One Club' of the golfers, the new organization promises to be a bit exclusive in membership. Old-time lineotypers will be asked to join, or any other operator going a whole day without an error."—Lineotype News.

Night School Opens Monday

Evening Technical Classes Will Give Course in Pharmacy for First Time This Year

A class in pharmacy is being organized by the directors of the evening technical classes at the High School which begin the winter session on Monday night. Mr. W. H. Hinn, supervisor of the technical school, expects a heavier enrolment this year than was experienced for the 1924-25 season. Mr. Hinn will be at the School Board office every afternoon except Saturday from 4 to 5 o'clock to interview those desiring information about the classes. Intending students may enroll at the School Board office any day during office hours.

Amongst the changes in the curriculum of last year is one which is designed to make the course in music attractive to prospective students. As before, the commercial courses include bookbinding, shorthand, typewriting, penmanship and salesmanship. The technical courses include woodwork, sheet metal drafting, art metal work, machine shop practice and gasoline engines. The engineering courses include mathematics, machine construction and steam engines. There is also an elementary and advanced course in electrical engineering.

Building and construction and architectural drawing will be taught in the building trades course. Other courses are given in commercial art design, stencilling, embroidery, lettering, show card writing, cartooning and caricaturing, drawing and pottery.

Domestic science courses include dressmaking, millinery and cooking. Courses will be given in French and Spanish and a special course in matriculation subjects. Classes will be held on Monday and Thursday of each week.

Date Is Set for Provincial Potato Show in November

The Provincial Potato Show, which is planned to be held at New Westminster Armories this year, will be later than the last two shown at Victoria and Vancouver respectively. It will be the fourth show of this character in the Province, the initial effort being made at Grand Forks in 1922.

The marvellous expansion of certified seed potatoes growing, which has wonderfully improved the yield and taken British Columbia potato into first place, has naturally rendered the show of larger dimensions, and entails a greater amount of accommodation. At the Manufacturers' Building, Vancouver, last year, the show was cramped for space. As was the case a year ago, invitations will be extended to the leading Coast seed and bulb growers to have displays in the fair. From the interior it is expected some of the specialties, like the Okanagan sweet potatoes, will be shown.

The Department of Agriculture proposes to engage the building from November 20 to December 2. This will permit the necessary arrangements to be made beforehand, and will allow for the opening about November 25, continued open to the public during the balance of that week.

"See Canada by Car" Advises Saint John Man

Mr. R. D. McA. Law Completes Transcanada Journey, With Certain Detours Where Necessary

Encounters No Obstacles

"One of the best ways for a motorist to take a holiday is to attempt a transcanada motor tour. In my opinion there is no particular hardship, with conveniences of motor camps and good hotels along the entire route," says Mr. R. D. McA. Law, who has arrived here after a motor tour from Saint John, New Brunswick, with his family. The party are the guests of Mrs. Law's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Sunderland, 1353 Pandora Avenue.

Visits Chief Cities

Mr. Law, who is the senior representative in the Maritime provinces of the Dunlop Tire and Rubber Goods Company, made this trip in a four-door car, camping en route, and visiting the principal cities.

He inflated his tires at Saint John, and made the entire trip of 5,740 miles without changing a tire from ocean to ocean. Leaving Saint John on July 20 the party motored up the Saint John River to Edmundston, thence to Quebec City, by way of Lévis. Then they went on to Montreal, and up the Ottawa Valley to the Capital. Journeying to Kingston and west to Toronto, later they visited Niagara, returning to Toronto, proceeding to North Bay and Hault St. Marie.

The party crossed into the United States at the Soo, and motored through the states of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Mr. Law next turned north to Emerson, Manitoba, and traveled to Winnipeg. From Winnipeg west to Regina the route entailed several detours, and when Regina was reached the party motored to Saskatoon by way of Hault St. Marie, that route being recommended in preference to the southern one.

From Saskatoon the itinerary turned west and north to Calgary. The section to Banff was taken over the new road, and thence south through the Kootenay to Easton, where the party entered Idaho, continued south and west to Spokane and Heald. The crossing to Vancouver Island was made by way of Anacortes.

His Impressions
The roads in general were in very good shape. "Before leaving home I was warned of the treachery of the prairie pumpos, but only had one day's experience," Mr. Law says, "and during that time was able to drive ninety miles. The best part of the trip was the Banff-Windermere route through the Canadian Rockies, and the Hewart Pass in the State of Washington. Both these sections will give any motorist the thrill of a lifetime, and I regret that the route cannot yet be made throughout."

Mrs. Jones: "My husband is the light of my life." Mrs. Smith: "He is mine. One of the kind that smokes and goes out at night."

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Banished "Cattle-Fifty-five head of cattle from Similkameen, were brought down by Mr. James Allison last evening. The cattle contained 10 P. Reynolds and Stafford and Goodacre, and are fine beasts. Ninety-four head in all, were brought down in New Westminster. Mr. Allison drove the last over the road from Hope to New Westminster, and found it in an almost impassable condition, and no repairs under way. He says he shall not attempt to bring any more cattle over the road.

The Hudson's Bay Company steamer will sail at 7 this morning for Wrangell and Sitka with a large freight. Amongst her passengers were Mr. W. Charing of the Hudson's Bay Company, and Messrs. McAllister and Warren.

The eighty-one ton gun recently completed at Woodhead for the ironclad Indefatigable was tested on the 17th September. The charge consisted of 350 pounds of powder and a 1,100-pound shot. The result was not quite satisfactory.

Morocco War Protested by French Reds

Communists Decide to Call Twenty-Four Hour Strike to Show Disapproval of Moorish Conflict

War Correspondent Detained as Spy?

North American Newspaper Alliance Doubts London Rumor—Absence From Tangier Not Significant

PARIS, Sept. 29.—The Communist party of France has decided to call a twenty-four-hour general strike as a protest against the Moroccan war. The date of the strike was not announced, in order not to give the police time to prepare "repressive measures."

It is known that the French police have at least one operative as a member of every executive committee of the Communist party.

Correspondent Believed Spy? LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Tangier correspondent of The London Times reports:

"An American correspondent is reported in the Rif camp at Targhauit. He left Tangier some time ago, and is said to be unable to proceed to Abd-el-Krim's headquarters at Adjar because of fighting in that region. He is apparently not allowed to return to Tangier because of suspicion of being a spy."

Rumor Doubled NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The North American Newspaper Alliance, which sent Vincent Sheehan into the Rif country as the correspondent of the Alliance, stated tonight that there is no reason to believe that Mr. Sheehan is being detained as a spy. The dispatch from Tangier, published in The London Times, is apparently based on local gossip. Mr. Sheehan's mission was for obvious reasons not made public in Tangier, but he entered the Rif territory as a fully accredited correspondent, and further dispatches from him are expected periodically. His failure to return to Tangier has no significance, as he has no intention of returning at the present time, and will continue with the Rif army as the correspondent of the Alliance.

By VINCENT SHEEHAN

Special Correspondent of The Colonist and the North American Newspaper Alliance

With Rif armies (Copyright, 1925, by Vincent Sheehan)

Abd-el-Krim has now roughly 200,000 men on the southern front. And Abd-el-Krim has used against them only 500 Rifians, supported by a considerable number of Arab tribesmen, the total force numbering fewer than 15,000.

Sidi Mohammed received me for a long interview, covering the whole situation in the Rif, both as regards the military activities of France and Spain, and as regards the possibility of peace.

Undoubtedly the Rif position has become more serious this month, with the new Franco-Spanish activities along the North Coast and the increasing number of air attacks.

But here at headquarters, where the telephone keeps the Rif staff in constant communication with all fronts, there is no feeling of alarm. In fact, since the Spanish and French began bombarding the coast, the general staff has been greatly relieved to discover how little damage such a bombardment from the sea can cause. Previously, it had been supposed by the Rif leaders that a determined attack by the combined fleets would result in defeat for the Rif.

Alger Attack Awakened

The Spanish forces landed at Cape Moro Nuevo on the western horn of Alhucemas Bay on September 8, but they are unable to go much farther and the Rifians are well content to keep them there.

Whenever they attempt to attack Adjar, they will be faced by the finest troops of the Rif Army, the Sultan's guards under Abd-el-Krim himself.

Meanwhile the great French and Spanish fleet, numbering sixty odd ships of all classes, is bombarding the coast daily with small effect.

On the southern front the French are now regaining some of their lost ground in the Beni Zeroual region, but their losses are heavy and their progress slow.

Facing this situation of blockade and war on all fronts, Sidi Mohammed displays his usual calm. The Rif commander is a brown-eyed, brown-bearded personage of medium height, or less, dressed in an ordinary djellaba and turban undistinguishable from those worn by everybody else here. He has lately taken to wearing gold-rimmed eyeglasses, which give him the air of a professor in some Islamic university. Instead of the victorious leader of an army, he speaks fluent and correct Spanish, a relic of his student days in Madrid, where he took courses in mining and engineering, and French as fluently.

His office is a small room in a new mud house which he has had built here, and the only noticeable thing about it is its rug, a beautiful Persian carpet which, like all other unexpected luxuries at Targhauit, belongs to Rataul's treasure, captured when that infamous old bandit fell into the hands of the Rif Army.

15,000 Against 200,000

Sidi Mohammed outlined the military situation briefly to me in the manner which I have summarized above. Then he turned to the general aspects of the Rif position.

"France has employed every means in her power to defeat us on the southern frontier," he asserted, "big guns, huge armies, intensive campaigns by airplanes, all the newest inventions in artillery and bombing of every sort, in fact the full resources of the greatest military power in the world, excepting only chemical warfare."

"Against most of these weapons, particularly against the air attacks and the big artillery, we have no defence whatsoever."

"France has now roughly 200,000 men on the southern front. Do you know what is the highest number we have ever been able to employ there? Only 15,000."

"The point is, this is a war against odds which can only be called tremendous."

"And what has been the result?"

"Victory for us! I don't think anybody could deny that."

Seven Tenderers Seek Contract To Build School

Esquimalt Board, However, Defers Action Until Government Grant Is Ascertained

Lowest Figure is $13,250

Tenders for the building of the proposed new Esquimalt High School were received at the meeting of the Municipal School Board held last night. In all seven tenders were submitted for the approval of the members, but no definite contract was awarded.

The firm of E. H. Hume offered the lowest estimate, which ran into the figures of $13,250, while Williams, Terlie & Williams were next with a quotation of $13,387. A. Lockley, with $14,050; Thomas Ashe, with $14,554; Thos. D. Sedger, with $14,750; W. D. Burnett, with $15,000, and The Victoria Realty Company, with $18,500, were the other bidders.

The tenders called for the erection and supplying of material of a three-room school, one-story building to be erected on the Old Esquimalt Road. The aggregate estimates were considerably lower than the board anticipated and with these figures, the board believed the sum of $15,000 would be required to complete the building. Several other tenders for painting and plumbing at the school were submitted, but these were tabled.

They Make Your Living Room Say "Welcome!"

A DARK night outside. Snow on the street, windy and cold. You think of the man hurrying home from his work and you stir up the fire and lay another log across the fire-dogs.

And you turn in the glow of the blaze and see your new living room rug, a genuine Barrymore, spreading back from the fire glow into the further shadows, soft, deep-piled, rich, colorful, harmonious.

"Ah," you say to yourself, "I am glad we got a really good rug."

For a Barrymore Rug, in the glow of the living room fire, reflects the very spirit of "Welcome!"

And when he opens the door and sees you there—well, the picture is complete. It means happiness to that man. A Barrymore Rug is an investment in happiness.

Every genuine Barrymore Rug is guaranteed and the guarantee label is affixed securely to the back of the rug. Look for it. Insist upon it. It means perfection of wear, of dye and finish. Children Becoming Very Sophisticated

They Turn Cold Shoulder to Fables and Merely Applaud to Please Parents

LONDON, Sept. 29.—London librarians find that fairy tales have lost their "punch" for modern children.

The librarians have concluded that Hans Christian Andersen, the Grimm Brothers and other writers of their kind are being given the cold shoulder by the youngsters of today, who demand stories concerning adventure and action on sea or land.

Children of this age are so sophisticated, the librarians believe, and so well advanced in learning and taste for literature that even Peter Pan, in his famous appeal to children to clap their hands if they believe in fairies and so save the life of Tinker Bell, is very likely to suffer in the future.

Peter Pan, of course, will always be more or less popular, the librarians agree, also pointing out that so will Santa Claus; but it is not so much the children these days who keep these mythical characters alive, as their parents and other grown-ups who have recollections of happy childhoods in the days when fairy tales were in their prime. When Santa Claus and Peter Pan are applauded today, the librarians declare, the children do so to please their parents.

Board Not Responsible—Students of the municipality attending the Victoria High School are doing so at their own cost, members of the Esquimalt School Board made it clear last night when a letter was read from a resident of the district drawing attention to the fact that the three wards of pupils from the municipality attending the city school.

Another Fish Reduction Plant Is Considered

Oceanic Fish Oil and Meal Company, Limited, Is Organized With Registered Headquarters in Victoria

To Operate on West Coast

Fish products extraction companies are among the newest ventures in applying the less marketable portions of the harvest of the sea around the Coast to the needs of modern requirements.

Several companies have come into existence on the West Coast, induced largely by the Dominion Order-in-Council permitting the use of pilchards for reduction purposes. Among these companies has just been incorporated the Oceanic Fish Oil and Meal Company, Limited, with registered offices at 319 Pemberton Building. The authorized capital is 100,000 shares of $1 each, 40,000 of which are available for public subscription.

The directors are Major Frank B. Edwards, Mr. J. H. Gillespie, Mr. Alexander Scobie, and Captain I. M. Vince.

The company has been organized for the purpose of reducing pilchards, dog fish, and other suitable material by the J. W. C. Stanley process, to make fish oil, fish meal, and fertilizer. Mr. Stanley came to B.C. to study the question, and his tests have been very encouraging. As a chemical engineer of long experience he has had special knowledge of the fish industry, and has erected works for this type of fish in England, and the Atlantic seaboard.

Captain Vance, who will be general manager, will undertake procuring the supplies from West Coast fishermen, and Major Edwards will be managing director. In addition to a general business experience before the war, the Major has specialized in fishing enterprises since 1919, and was successfully engaged in the salmon fisheries at Cumshewa Inlet, Queen Charlotte Islands.

Forget Birth Control

An interesting resolution which was carried by a strong majority declared the subject of birth control was not one which should be made a political issue, but should be left to individual convictions. This was the conference's answer to the desire of many delegates that the party should openly advocate birth control.

It was announced that A. J. Cooke, the miners' representative, who has been on the executive for the last year, had withdrawn his candidature. No reason was stated.

Resolution Antiquated

C. T. Cramp, president of the Railwaymen's Union and chairman of the conference, in his opening address said that Labor's fundamental task was not to wage war against individuals or any class, but to conquer the circumstances which had given rise to class warfare.

There should be no revolution by force, he said, and the position of those who would apply methods of force should be scrapped as antiquated, being about 100 years behind the times.

Much has been heard about its being the duty of Labor to condemn

Hearing Postponed—The hearing of the application for the admission of Canada, at this point, of the two young Chinese girls on the ground that they are natives of the country, will not come before the Supreme Court until Thursday. Before Chief Justice Hunter yesterday leave to postpone the hearing of the matter was requested and agreed to by His Lordship.

Ladies' Band—In reference to an account in yesterday's issue of The Colonist of Kitchener's Regimental Ladies' Band as the first in Canada, Mrs. L. Martin, of 2018 Blackwood Street, points out that the Killarney (Manitoba) ladies' band existed twenty years ago, of twenty-five or more instruments, under the direction of Mr. Parks. This band, she says, was very popular, traveling extensively in the province to give entertainments.

Boys' Work Board—At a reorganization meeting of the Boys' Work Board of the Y.M.C.A. held at the Y.M.C.A. on Monday evening, the following were elected for office: Chairman, Rev. Dr. Scott; vice-chairman, Mr. William Strath; secretary-treasurer, Mr. George Porteous; executive committee: Messrs. Dilworth, Simpson and Knight. The executive is to meet during the current week to consider boys' work, and report at a general meeting to be held next Monday evening at 7 o'clock. A general meeting to be held this evening at 7:30 in the boys' division of the Y.M.C.A.

King's Daughters—During the past month the King's Daughters' rest-room was open twenty-six days, and 1,400 girls utilized the place. The rest-room report, read by Mrs. James Stewart at the meeting yesterday, gave these and other interesting statistics. The various circles reported. Mrs. Harvey reported for the Ministering circle; Mrs. Stewart for the Victoria. Mrs. Haynes told about the work done by the "Ready to Help" group. Miss Kathleen Roberts, district secretary, gave an interesting account of the convention held in Duncan on June 24 and 25. Miss Bertha Morley gave a report of the King's Daughters' Hospital at Duncan, stating that alterations were completed to the men's ward, which had been increased by five beds, while there had also been a small new laboratory and a nurses' service to the fact that the hospital's report of the B.C. hospitals' convention, held in Nanaimo.

The Dawes repatriation plan. He deprecated such criticism. The plan had been endorsed by various labor conferences, and to repudiate it would be equivalent to an invitation for the German workers to destroy the precarious balance of European peace and plunge this country again into the horrors of a military occupation.

AN INACTIVE LIVER IS THE CAUSE OF CONSTIPATION

When your liver gets sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated; you have sick and bilious headaches; your tongue coated and furry; your eyes, and often you feel as if you were going to faint, especially if in a crowded place, where there is little or no ventilation.

When in this condition there is only one thing to do, and that is to take MILBURN'S Laxa-Liver Pills.

They will stimulate the sluggish liver so that it will regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the bowels, and thus clear away all the poisonous matter that is responsible for all your liver troubles.

From Canada and United States to Meet in Wash-

Council Meeting Follows

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Evidence of the opportunity and power of youth to unite in combating "alarming tendencies affecting the lives of young men and boys on every hand" will be given when representatives of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States and Canada meet in Washington, D.C., the last week of October. The International Convention, which represents the common meeting ground of the associations from both sides of the border, will continue from October 24 to 26, and will be followed, October 27 to 31, by the annual meeting of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A. of the United States.

Laymen and employed leaders from many of the thirty countries in which the associations of the United States and Canada are at work will be present at Washington.

To meet the problems of the day, young men must work in closer cooperation than ever before. Dr. John R. Mott, general secretary of the National Council and the International Committee, suggests. Speaking particularly of the problems in the United States and Canada, he said:

There Must Be Strengthened

"When have the forces of crime and lawlessness, of bitterness and strife in social, racial and international relations, of materialism and of naturalistic philosophy, together with the perils resulting from the growing love of luxury, extravagance, ease and softness, and from a general spirit of compromise with down-grade tendencies, more beset and endangered the life of our youth? We must present an impressive, viable unity to meet such a situation."

Dr. Mott also makes an appeal for the strengthening of the ties between the "English-speaking, Christian nations of North America, and urges leaders of Church and State to concerted planning "in the interest of the right impact of the two countries on the non-Christian world."

Needs to Be Discussed

An important issue at Washington will be the long-discussed question of the proper basis for active membership in the Y.M.C.A. Whether membership in an evangelical church should be required is an important point involved.

Finances will be in the foreground during much of the National Council's meeting. Budgets for 1925, covering the work at home and abroad of the National Council and state and training agencies, totaled $3,841,925, of which $2,442,813 had to be raised in contributions. The total was divided into two parts, $1,510,911 for work in the United States, and $2,331,014 for service in foreign countries. This does not include the sums raised each year by local associations for use in their home communities.

State Must Face Problem
Of Prisoner's Dependents, Child Welfare Convention Told

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.—"If we are going to imprison for crime as a protection for the state, as an incentive to the prisoner for better conduct, as an example to other men, the state should fearlessly face the problem either of securing occupation for those incarcerated, or of making some other provision for wives and families so left destitute," said Hon. W. F. Nickle, Attorney-General for Ontario, speaking at the Child Welfare Conference here this afternoon. Mr. Nickle, however, made it plain that he was not speaking officially or for his government, but purely as an individual.

Family Best Institution

Rev. Joseph Haley, director of the Catholic Welfare Bureau, Toronto, gave a striking series of examples of the saving effected by aiding families to keep together as families, rather than removing the children to institutions. In Toronto his bureau had reduced the children in institutions from 422 to 124 by helping the families in their responsibilities.

"The best trained worker cannot take the place of a mother," said Father Haley. "On the solidarity of family depends the strength and greatness of the nation. The family should be maintained."

Attention to Migrants Urged

Rev. Hugh Dobson, evangelist and social field service secretary of the United Church of Canada, Regina, said Canada needed as part of its immigration policy more inquiry into the conditions at destination rather than so much attention to the immigrant upon embarkation. He believed that satisfactory conditions at the destination in Canada of immigrants should be a Federal responsibility. Speaking of juvenile immigrants, Mr. Dobson mildly attacked the condition that most of these children come from institutions of one kind or another overseas. Australia, he said, had a marked preference for children from grade schools. He believed that Canada should not get more children from institutions than could be properly cared for and absorbed.

LYDIA HARBROOK, a beautiful, cold society girl, who is now married to Mr. RidgeWAY, and who is the only daughter of the late Mr. Harbrook.

trived to slip off alone along the cliffs. What an enchanted summer morning!

On, on she walked, dreaming of happiness that, like a Will-o'-the-Wisp, was somewhere farther along the road of life—that magic happiness and utter peace that all souls crave.

The scenery grew wilder, more romantic. RoseLYN rested in the warm sunshine. She loved the feel of it on her bare arms and unshaded face.

"I must have gypsy blood in me," she said.

After a time she went on farther, till presently she saw—lying behind a gorse-bush—the recumbent figure of a man. He was quite some distance from her, and appeared to be sleeping, and as she drew a little nearer, she saw, with a start of astonishment and nervousness, that the portion of his jaw and face which appeared below a hat tilted well down to keep the sun off, was uncommonly like Mr. Harbrook, and so was the figure, though he was not nearly so smartly dressed.

"It can't be he!" She drew away as softly as possible, afraid that the slumberer might awake. It was lonely in this spot, and Mrs. RidgeWAY had already censured her for these solitary ramblings. She retraced her steps.

If it were really Mr. Harbrook, why was he in the neighborhood? And why so far from any road or any sign of habitation?

He had an unkempt air, almost as though he had spent the whole night out-of-doors, beside that bush! But that, of course, was too absurd. Mr. Harbrook was a sybarite for comfort, and a man of means.

It wasn't possible that he had come down here like this, without his car and chauffeur for the purpose of spying on her? The young girl shivered at the thought.

It wasn't possible that he was in league with the Harbrook woman, to come here and make mischief between herself and Landis?

She looked fearfully over her shoulder, but a slight rising of the ground hid the neighborhood behind her. The bush and its sleeping tenant was now out of sight.

Thinking she heard a step as though someone were following, she broke into a frightened run. She ran blindly, faintly, and at topmost speed, racing over the uneven ground and through the bushes in a hollow, tearing her face and frock, but—strange to say—giving no support to her, no foothold, for those bushes parted and yielded to her, and she came out through black darkness in a tunnel leading apparently to the very centre of the earth.

Local Rabbits Take Honors

Washington Trophies Carried Off by Breeders From District—Buyers Coming Here

Fresh honors have come to the rabbit breeders of this district in the carrying off of prizes at the Puyallup Fair. Capt. Babbington, of Brentwood, has just returned from the exhibition there with the news that in the Chinchilla class five animals put in by himself, Mr. P. Barlow, of Sidney, and Miss Hanson, of Keating, won three firsts, and in addition a second and a third. In the latter classes the rabbits were beaten by the exhibits from here.

Capt. Babbington says that a great deal of interest in the local rabbits was aroused as a result of the exhibition of these animals. The result is that a number of Washington State breeders are to visit here in order to purchase breeding stock with the idea of improving their present holdings.

The Victoria Rabbit Association is putting on an exhibition in January at the same time as the Provincial Poultry Show is held here. This will allow the outside fanciers to inspect the rabbits in this locality and make purchases. This fact was made known to them on his trip by Capt. Babbington, and a number of breeders from Washington is assured during that time.

Rabbit breeding as an industry has become quite general in the state to the south. Miss Brennan has established a factory where the making of trimmings, etc., from rabbit skins is carried on in a commercial way. She has about 3,000 rabbits, and a real industry has been built up.

During the exhibition at Puyallup, it is pointed out by Capt. Babbington, one stall that specialized in rabbit and sandwiches disposed of one hundred pounds of this meat daily.

In praise of the Chinchillas as a most desirable variety to raise, Capt. Babbington points out that the price of $1.50 for some of the skins sent to England for rating at the great sales held there was within the range of the prices offered.

Not that he wasn't interested in the renovating of the house. He loved every attic and stone of the old place, and had taken the keenest interest in the work, spending hours with foremen and advisers.

But now that the business was nearly finished he was off to fresh fields and pastures. That meant Lydia Harbrook. RoseLYN's heart contracted at the thought.

Shortly after breakfast, she continued to slip off alone along the cliffs.

Shower for Bride-Elect

On Friday evening, September 25, Miss Jenny Stubbs, whose marriage takes place shortly, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given at the home of the Misses A. and M. Stubbs. The many beautiful gifts were concealed under a large bell of mauve and pink petals placed in the center of the table. The table decorations were also carried out in mauve and pink. The bride-elect was asked to pull a mauve ribbon streamer which drew the bell to the light above, displaying little Miss Inez Jeanne amongst the many gifts. The invited guests were: The Misses Jenny Stubbs, Ellen Stubbs, Marie Stubbs, Olga McDougall, Florence McDougall, Clara Graham, Alice Graham, Mrs. Percy Riddle, Mrs. H. T. Lock, Nellie Skowcroft, Winnie Skowcroft, Hilda Cummins, Grace Watson, Amy Richardson, Nellie Wise, Daisy Savage, Annie Gilling, Ellen Gilling, May Gilling, Mrs. W. Putting on Thinking Caps to Survey the Moods of the Mode—The Evolution of the "Hat" of Today From the "Hut" of Ancient Britain—Macaroni Hats Worn With Wigs Two Feet High

By Timber Bell

Let us put on our thinking caps, pull them well down on our heads, turn up the brims at the back and contemplate them in the mirror of our reflection.

Considering how much fashions have changed this season, there is much to be thought of concerning the matter of hats. It looks very much as though we shall be asked to kiss our hard little, round little hats good-bye. It looks dangerously as though the beloved boyish shingles are no longer to be encased in our just as beloved boyish bowler hats. Are we being asked to carry upon our irresponsible heads the responsibility of velvet and ribbon, without even the help of a hatpin (there being no time to stick it, unless in the holes through which one's memory is continually escaping)?

Of course, if we begin to attach false tresses to the backs of our heads, as I hear we are going to do, perhaps that would be an encouragement to go back to the custom of wearing a hat more for decoration than for use.

Fashion is a monstrous Dolly. She sits enthroned somewhere far above men's ordinary intelligence, planning a new prance to play upon them. Along with the evolution of styles, the poor chapeau has for ages been tumbling upon a mad and variegated career.

The ancestral name of the English-speaking hat, as "twere, is "Hut." It bore this title when, in the shape of a felt or fur cap, it adorned the simple heads of ancient Britons. However, it was not until the reign of Edward III that the habit of hat wearing was really started. By the time Richard II ascended the throne it had again fallen out of favor, the beaus and beauties of the day showing a preference for the hair.

It was Good Queen Bess who first gave hats distinction, by introducing the ermine bonnet, which was most fascinating because it was worn by all to all gentlemen born. Let all those of lesser rank covet and achieve the sacred white fur with its charcoal tabs was not for such as they.

It is a fact that the nature of the hat is determined by the nature of the culture, and if we admit that the richness or simplicity of a woman's attire depends upon the amount of time she has to devote upon it, we may be safe in deducing that the morals and manners of an era are reflected to a certain degree in its hats. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, when powdered wigs were sometimes built about immense structures standing as high as two feet above the head, the hat would be expected in the way of a hat but a mere trifle—just a suggestion of the real thing, a tribute to a custom which he used in the circumstances, but so long established that it was, oh, quite unheard of to discard it!

So the "Macaroni" hat, a caricature of straw and ribbons, flowers and lace, and of a size to fit a doll, was made and stuck on the tops of the mountainous wigs.

"Ca va bien!"—and I am in the fashion!" cried Madame, prouetting with pleasure before her mirror flanked with china vases. And that is more she believed herself beautiful, and by all that is fashionable, perhaps she was!

And, of course, we must not by any means forget the great, ridiculous bonnets which in the time of Queen Victoria were tied like gaping clams on the tops of coarsely dressed heads.

But far be it from us to criticize the perverted pleasures of other days!

Only Woman Ruler in India

Begum of Bhopal, Now in England, Is Woman of Remarkable Personality

Among all the rulers of the Native States of India, there is no one else who stands out in commanding personality as does the Begum of Bhopal, who is on a visit to England.

She has distinctions unique in many directions. No other woman at this moment fills or appears to fill, an Indian throne. She alone of her sex, with the exception of the Queen-Emperess, occupies the throne of the Grand Cross of the Order of the Star of India. No other woman in India receives a salute of nineteen guns on all state occasions; she enjoys equally the confidence of the Home and Indian Governments, and a host of native and English friends.

As a child she was under the care of her grandmother, who brought her up on a strict routine, which the Begum herself has placed on record. From five to seven in the morning was occupied with open-air exercises and then a meal. At eight she studied the Koran for two hours, and then spent time with her grandmother from noon to one was her writing lesson. Half an hour was given to riding before the evening meal, and she was sent to bed at eight. Never did an English officer come to the Begum of Bhopal, and she was never from Sikandar Begum that he would talk to the little girl in his own language and inform her as to the progress she was making.

Husband Dies

She was married with much pomp and ceremony when but fifteen years old, to Ahmed Ali Khan, who was two years her senior. In June, 1901, she was called upon to rule the State, and in those early days of her reign, the Begum was fortunate in having the valuable assistance of Colonel Meade, representing Lord Curzon, as her adviser. The first difficulty she had to face was the problem of an empty treasury. Then the sudden death of her husband added responsibility and sorrow to her and she decided to make a pilgrimage to Mecca.

But at the express wish of Lord Curzon, the pilgrimage was postponed until after the Coronation Durbar of King Edward VII. In 1904 she accomplished the journey, and has written a full description of her experiences.

The Begum was a visitor to England at the time of the Coronation of their present Majesty. For her commendation Paterson Court, near Redhill, was taken. One interesting occupation she found time to study in the intervals of attending court, being received by various members of the Royal family and seeing the chief sights, was that of painting—an exceedingly rare accomplishment for an Indian lady—she made numerous sketches from nature, which she took back to India as mementoes of her stay.

Veiled in Public

According to her creed, the Begum is veiled when in public. A round cap fits to the head and from this fall the ample folds of some opaque material that completely conceals the face and figure. Two small eyes exactly in front of the eyes, allow the wearer to see where she is going and something of anyone addressing her.

The Begum is a delightful conversationalist and her interest ranges over many subjects of English literature she is keenly appreciative, and all the best books as they appear and the more thoughtful periodicals are forwarded to her. One of her great delights is to read the Persian classics. She is a most remarkable woman and the British Raj in India has no wiser or more loyal supporter than Nawab Sultan Jahan Begum.

Lake Hill Institute Holds

Enjoyable Card Party

Lake Hill Women's Institute held an enjoyable and well attended military five hundred party on Monday evening in the Community Hall. The prize winners were: First, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Tucker, Mr. Barlow and Mr. Sturgeon; second, Mrs. Disher, Mrs. McQueen, Mr. Heath and Mr. Watson; ten bid, Mrs. Perryman and Mr. Hirst. Next Monday night's party will be held under the auspices of the Lake Hill Community Centre.

A course of twelve lessons in art needlework will commence on Friday, October 2, at 7:45 p.m., in the Community Hall. These classes will be held under the auspices of the Lake Hill Women's Institute, with Miss Ineson, of Victoria, as instructor. Ladies of the district are invited to join the class by paying the usual fee.

The regular monthly meeting of the Lake Hill Women's Institute will be held on Tuesday, October 6, at 2 p.m., in the Community Hall.

Will Address Scouts Here

James W. Robertson, C.M.G., LL.D., chief commissioner of the Boy Scouts Association in Canada, and chairman of the Canadian Red Cross Society, will meet and address the scout leaders and executive committee of the Victoria Scouts Association on Friday afternoon next at 2 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce reading room.

"Should we have female architects?" has been discussed in a daily paper. A male cynic unparadoxically protests that there are quite enough designing women about already.

City Temple Buys K. of P. Hall as New Centre for Church Social Life

Big Building on North Park Street Changes Hands for $18,000—Congregational Meeting Endorses Recommendation of Temple Board of Management

Victoria City Temple has decided to purchase the K. of P. Hall, North Park Street.

This decision was reached at a packed meeting held in the hall last evening. It took nearly two hours and a half to discuss the various aspects of the question, but when Mr. Hughes, seconded by Mrs. Hammond, finally put a motion that the recommendation of the board of management be endorsed and the K. of P. Hall be purchased, "subject to suitable financial arrangements being effected," there were only three persons in the gathering who opposed the undertaking. One of these subsequently stated that the basis of his objection was the short time allowed for the consideration of so momentous a question rather than any definite opposition.

Simultaneously the meeting, on motion of Mr. H. Johnson, decided that Temple Hall, Fort Street, presently occupied by City Temple some time ago by Dr. Ernest Hall, be put on the market.

K. of P. Hall

The K. of P. Hall is a three-story terra-cotta faced brick building on North Park Street, between Blenheim and Quadra Streets. Its base dimensions are 60 x 120 feet, and in addition to the main large hall, 45 x 60, in the rear of the second floor, there are two other large halls and numerous smaller rooms suitable for classrooms, cloak rooms, committee rooms, etc. In the basement and ground floor is a heating plant, also dining-hall and kitchen.

The present owners of the hall will sell the property as it stands, including all crockery, pianos and other furnishings, with the exception of chairs and desks with the K.P. monogram, and the price of $18,000 to include the good will as a going concern. The sale provides made is that the K. of P. be allowed the privilege of holding its own lodge meetings in the building for a term of one year, rent free. There is a mortgage of $17,000.

Radical Move

The discussion of the purchase of the K. of P. Hall was the purpose of the "important meeting" advertised in the local press on Sunday. Mr. C. B. Deaville, president of the City Temple board of managers, presided; Mr. Langley acted as secretary, and Rev. Dr. Clem Davies and others occupied seats on the platform. More than thirty motor cars parked outside the hall gave an unusual air of activity to the quiet street.

"We have come to the place where we must find a bigger place to house our social, mental and physical enterprises of our organization," explained Dr. Davies in an eloquent address which he made in introducing the subject of the purchase to the assembly. But for the generosity of Dr. Ernest Hall the City Temple would have been badly off during the past year for such a social centre, where they had outgrown the smaller home, with present stagnant business conditions throughout the Dominion," he said. Relative to the departure from Canada of thousands of its people, Mr. Coldicutt declared that the principal cause was the Liberal Government's policy of allowing the shipping of raw material to the United States. Such export was followed by the migration of thousands of Canadian workers to the mills where the raw material was manufactured to be sent back to Canada as finished products.

As an example he referred to the exportation last year of $7,000,000 worth of raw asbestos from Canada to the United States. In the mills of the latter country it was manufactured into articles worth $7,000,000, many of them being sold in the Canadian market.

Mr. Coldicutt showed that he had a complete grasp of the business situation throughout the Comox-Alberni ridings. He is the proprietor of a line of motor buses, and is in business and personal communication with all areas of the riding.

"Mr. Neill a Liberal

Mr. Ladner, of South Vancouver, through his observation of the tactics of Mr. Neill as a member of the House of Commons, was able to throw considerable illumination on the Comox-Alberni member's record. He declared that Mr. Neill was running as an independent candidate, but as a matter of fact he was a Liberal candidate, and had been a consistent supporter of Mackenzie King and all his policies.

"It is not on his present promises that the electors must judge him, but on what he did at Ottawa as a member on the important questions affecting British Columbia," said Mr. Ladner. "The records of Parliament show that on every vote, whether on the speech from the throne or on the budget, Mr. Neill always voted for the King Government. His actions were based on partisan politics rather than on principle.

"In 1922, Sir Henry Drayton, Conservative, moved an amendment to the Government's budget, charging the Government with a breach of its election promises. Mr. Neill voted against the amendment.

Against Progressives

"In 1923, Mr. Forke, the Progressive Leader, moved an amendment for tariff reduction. Mr. Neill voted against the amendment.

"In 1924, Mr. Woodward, of the Labor Leader, of Winnipeg, moved an amendment to the budget, demanding a graduated inheritance tax on large estates. Although that principle is in Mr. Neill's present platform, he voted against Mr. Woodward's amendment, and against his own principles in order to support Mackenzie King.

"In 1925, Sir Henry Drayton moved an amendment demanding reductions in taxation and more economy in administration. Mr. Neill voted against the amendment and for the Government. Yet his platform today contains that plank.

"In the speech from the throne in 1923, an amendment was moved by between eight and nine hundred members in good standing, and thirteen or fourteen groups of young people and other organizations in the church, they simply must have bigger accommodation. At its meeting on September 15 the board of management had decided on the sale of Temple Hall, and had also passed a recommendation for the purchase of the K. of P. Hall.

"Our church is still suffering from growing pains," continued Dr. Davies, pressing his argument. He reviewed the efforts made by the board to find a suitable new home "down town." Sixteen of them had spent between three and four weeks looking at various halls and buildings, either with a view to rental or purchase, and the K. of P. Hall, offered at $18,000, had appealed to them as the best proposition they had found. It would not replace the "Royal Victoria Theatre" as a place for their Sunday services, and for which they paid $5,200 in week-week rentals. But it did offer possibilities as a revenue-producing property. Dr. Davies threw out a few suggestions, closed the meeting and adjourned, with the various organizations might follow in an effort to raise funds. There was some debate as to the advisability of buying a lot and building, but the proposal was overruled as being more costly.

Considered All Angles

Mr. C. B. Deaville endorsed Dr. Davies' summary of the situation, and Mr. Bridge, another member of the board of management, closed the meeting with an appeal to the members of Victoria City Temple to "get behind the undertaking and give it their enthusiastic support." Captain Gadsden's motion that the meeting pass a resolution of thanks and congratulations to the board for their initiative and enterprise met with hearty applause.

Other Business

The meeting had other matters of importance to decide upon, among them being the calling of special meetings and the recommendation brought forward from the same board meeting of September 15, that application for registration under the Societies Act be made. This had the support of the members when it was explained that incorporation was advisable. "In order that they might have a legal standing and some status in the community."

The constitution and by-laws were gone over, and one or two slight alterations made, one amendment providing for the calling of special meetings by the City Temple members at any time on the request of fifteen members in good standing and four-tenths majority vote.

Several musical numbers were given during the evening, and after the meeting the members were invited to make a tour of the building which was designated as their "new home," concluding the inspection in the dining-room, where the City Temple ladies served refreshments.

Mr. Shaw, independent member for Calgary, asking for economy in expenditures, and administration of government, and lessening of the burden of Federal taxation, which, in the present election is one of Mr. Neill's planks. Yet Mr. Neill, when he had an opportunity of voting in the House for his principle, placed his support behind Mr. King and voted against the Shaw amendment.

Sacrifices His Principle

"In 1924, in the speech from the throne, Mr. Butler, Conservative, moved an amendment asking for protection for the agricultural industry in order to develop the home market. Again Mr. Neill showed his independence by voting against the amendment in order to support Mackenzie King. The amendment contained many of the planks in Mr. Neill's present platform, but when his principles were placed against the welfare of the King Government he always supported the Government. On no important occasion did he vote against the Government.

"Mr. Neill is a camouflaged Liberal, ashamed of his record, and now offering as part of his platform that he will support either a Conservative or a Liberal Government.

"Although Mr. Neill favored Asiatic exclusion, yet his leader, Hon. Mackenzie King, voted with his whole party against the resolution of Mr. McQuarrie, Conservative, New Westminster, calling for absolute exclusion. Mr. King argued in favor of 'effective restriction.' The Conservative leader, Mr. Meighen, stated to the House that after several years' consideration of the matter, he had come to a decision in favor of exclusion. During the next session, 1923, he asked for a return of correspondence between the Canadian and Japanese Governments. To the amazement of all British Columbians, there was disclosed a letter from the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs, addressed to Hon. Mackenzie King. The letter, in part, was as follows: 'I have sincere appreciation of the friendly efforts you so thoughtfully made in order to prevent such circumstances arising as might have been inimical to friendly relations.'

"The letter referred specifically to the drastic measures proposed in the 1922 session of the Canadian Parliament."

City Desires To Safeguard Water Supply

Present System of Trades Licences Is Subject of Criticism by Courtenay Merchants

Automobile Park Plan

COURTENAY, Sept. 29.—Following the summer season and holiday period the city fathers got down to business last night. Mayor William Duncan took the chair and the sixteen members present were Messrs. Frederick Field, Thos. Pearce, Heber Cooke, J. W. McKenzie and E. L. Macdonald.

A deputation of merchants waited on the council complaining that the present system of trade licences was in their opinion unfair. Mr. Ian D. Pike was the chief spokesman. He said he did not object to the amount of the licence that was charged, but objected very strongly that the drug stores were allowed, what he termed a monopoly, in the sale of many lines during certain hours in the evening and on Sundays when other stores were closed in accordance with the by-law affecting the retail stores.

Messrs. Rickson Bros., of the general furnishings and variety stores, also addressed the council. Mr. Rickson was of the opinion that a flat rate of licence applicable to all retail merchants should be installed, as this to him was the only fair way to deal with the matter and the only way in which friction would be avoided.

Alderman McKenzie thought that the by-law could very well be revised. Other aldermen were of the opinion that the by-law had been framed to a large extent by the storekeepers themselves.

Alderman Cooke suggested that if two-thirds of the merchants petitioned the council, something might be done. "No law in Canada," he said, "could close a drug store."

City Manoeuvres

A letter from the inspector of municipalities regarding city management was read and discussed. The letter embodied a number of questions asking for the council's opinion as to whether the principle of an official city

You'll Get Rid of Blackheads Sure

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads that is to dissolve them. To do this, get two ounces of peroxide from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly with the cloth, and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. No matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Blackheads are a mixture of dirt and oil, and peroxide breaks down the pores of the skin. The peroxide powder and the water will combine and the dirt they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition. (Adv.)

Provincial Executive of Local Council of Women Meets in Nanaimo—Women on Juries

NANAIMO, Sept. 29.—The provincial executive of the local council of women met here yesterday with the following delegates present: Vancouver Council, Mrs. E. Caspell, Mrs. A. Atkinson, Judge McMill (national president), Mrs. A. D. Scott, Mrs. D. J. MacLachlin; from New Westminster, Mrs. Newton R. Brown, Mrs. W. A. Patchell, Mrs. A. E. Butler, Mrs. C. W. Miller, Mrs. W. J. Payne, Mrs. Galbraith; from Victoria, Mrs. Sarah Spencer, (provincial first vice-president), Mrs. William Grant, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Greaves and Miss Marshall.

Women on Juries
The meeting unanimously adopted a resolution submitted by Nanaimo Local Council, advocating a bill to the Canadian Criminal Code, making it compulsory for at least three women to serve on petty juries in criminal cases involving women and children.

Publicity Work
The Nanaimo Board of Trade wrote asking for a cheque in payment of Courtenay's share of a "North of the Island" advertising campaign, which was carried out during the tourist season. On motion of Alderman Field the amount previously promised, namely $100, is to be sent.

Grant Made
The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Hospital wrote, per its secretary, Mrs. Jean Pike, requesting a refund of the $5 licence collected by the police for operating a sales booth at the 1925 Fall Fair. The city having no right to refuse the licence, a grant of $5 was voted to the hospital on motion of Alderman Pearce.

Water Supply
The matter of improving and insuring the city's water supply was introduced by Alderman McKenzie when he reported that a blow-out of the piping in the pipe line had recently occurred.

If the water in the river had been high at the time, he said, it might have been a considerable time before repairs could have been effected. He was of the opinion that it would be well to approach the Canadian Collieries, Ltd., with a view to making a connection with that company's water main in case of such an emergency as the recent experience suggested.

Alderman Cooke was of the same opinion and thought that there should be no delay in the matter.

On the suggestions of Alderman Field, the entire council will interview Mr. Thomas Graham, of the colliery, in this connection.

Alderman Pearce, reporting on the better housing scheme, said that some of the holders under this scheme had suggested making a new arrangement with the city, whereby they would pay an amount each month from now on which would extend over a period of ten years. He did not think it was a particularly good deal on the city's part, but under the circumstances he thought it was probably the best that could be done.

Alderman Field reported that he now had a complete plan of the automobile park and that the land comprised 4.5 acres, according to the survey.

On the suggestion of City Clerk C. S. Wood, it was decided that all city of Courtenay bonds that have been redeemed by the city should be formally cancelled. The Mayor and the city clerk were authorized to make the cancellations and to destroy the coupons.

Mayor Duncan gave a short but interesting report on the recent Good League meeting in Victoria.

Alderman McDonald and McKenzie also reported on this matter. At a late hour it was decided to leave the proposed money by-laws in abeyance until later in the year.

The city having no right to refuse the licence, a grant of $5 was voted to the hospital on motion of Alderman Pearce.

Water Supply
The matter of improving and insuring the city's water supply was introduced by Alderman McKenzie when he reported that a blow-out of the piping in the pipe line had recently occurred.

If the water in the river had been high at the time, he said, it might have been a considerable time before repairs could have been effected. He was of the opinion that it would be well to approach the Canadian Collieries, Ltd., with a view to making a connection with that company's water main in case of such an emergency as the recent experience suggested.

Alderman Cooke was of the same opinion and thought that there should be no delay in the matter.

On the suggestions of Alderman Field, the entire council will interview Mr. Thomas Graham, of the colliery, in this connection.

Alderman Pearce, reporting on the better housing scheme, said that some of the holders under this scheme had suggested making a new arrangement with the city, whereby they would pay an amount each month from now on which would extend over a period of ten years. He did not think it was a particularly good deal on the city's part, but under the circumstances he thought it was probably the best that could be done.

Alderman Field reported that he now had a complete plan of the automobile park and that the land comprised 4.5 acres, according to the survey.

On the suggestion of City Clerk C. S. Wood, it was decided that all city of Courtenay bonds that have been redeemed by the city should be formally cancelled. The Mayor and the city clerk were authorized to make the cancellations and to destroy the coupons.

Mayor Duncan gave a short but interesting report on the recent Good League meeting in Victoria.

Alderman McDonald and McKenzie also reported on this matter. At a late hour it was decided to leave the proposed money by-laws in abeyance until later in the year.

Turquoise blue has been revived, after a long period when it scarcely saw it at all.

The sketch above shows one of the modish shawl wraps, developed in this smart color, which happens to be especially attractive for evening wear. This shawl is made of a single layer of georgette and trimmed with a fold of the same material, the fold embroidered all over in a scroll design worked in gold thread.

NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

Babe Adams Brought Honors to Pittsburgh Sixteen Years Ago

Veteran Slab Artist, One of Oldest Players in Majors, Ready to Pitch His Heart Out for Another Pirates' Triumph in World's Series—To Twirl Once at Least

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 29.—Sixteen years ago, on a cold October day, there came into everlasting baseball fame a bulky Missouri ploughman for the moment one of the great moundmen of the day—Charles (Babe) Adams.

BABE ADAMS
One of the oldest players in the big leagues, Adams is expected to start in at least one of the games in the series against the Washington Senators and New York Yankees.

Adams, who was born in 1882, was a member of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1909, and was one of the best pitchers of his time. He was known for his powerful arm and his ability to pitch in high-pressure situations.

Big Filipino May Be Tough For Danny Boy

Young Pascoe Will Have as Opponent on Friday at Arena Boxer Who Has Figured in Fifty Battles

Ticket Demand Is Heavy

Charles Genaro, protégé of the late Pancho Villa and friend of Benito and other Filipino fighters, with fifty battles to his credit, is coming over from Manila to fight Danny Pascoe on Friday at the Victoria arena.

"Of course I'll fight," is his ready answer when the talk on preliminary starts. He never bothers about who is to be his opponent until he steps into the ring.

All who know Danny's rough and ready methods will hear this little piece of news from Seattle with interest. It reads:

A Willing Mixer
"The Filipino is a willing mixer. He steps in and slugs. He is game and can take it. He has boxed all over the Pacific Coast and has a good knockout record, but has never taken the count himself. There is only one thing he likes better than a decision: a fight and that is a fight every day."

The regular fight fans can picture this boy with Danny Pascoe in the ring together. Outside of the headline, Billy Mascot and Danny Edwards, the card is billed as the best that has ever been offered. There are three boys coming over from Seattle, one from Los Angeles and one from Vancouver.

The boys who will figure in the ten-line battle at the arena are taking their business seriously. Danny's many friends in Victoria expressed surprise to hear that the dusky lad was rated as a lower in the betting and have brought it down to even money by the reckless way they have supported the champion.

The Semi-Whodup
The semi-whodup was definitely fixed this morning and makes another big attraction. Andy Teifer, of the Navy, goes six rounds with the popular Tommy Fleming. Tommy has been a drawing card since he stepped into the ring. Teifer is more or less of an unknown quantity locally but has a great record and ran right to the top of the featherweight class without a hitch, then starting to bowl over the lightweights. So far he has had one long string of victories.

Are you on the voters list? For information phone Conservative campaign phone, No. 2445 or 6820. Wednesday is the last day.

Raymond Cobb, of Georgia, will great after twenty years; the powerful Sam Crawford and a string of other dangerous batters. But Adams carried the series and the world's championship to Pittsburgh by permitting only six hits, materially aided by how-legged, fighting Hans Wagner, who seemed to be everywhere at once. Pittsburgh scored eight runs for a decisive conquest in this seventh and final game.

Out for Pirates' Triumph
Today Babe Adams, now forty-three years old, stands ready to pitch his heart out for another Pittsburgh triumph in world's series combat and the sentiment of the Pirate fans very likely will draw him into action in at least one of the games. His arm has not the stamina of old but his courage and skill remain.

Babe has had a notable career. Born in Tipton, Ind., in 1882, he went with his father to Mount Moriah, Mo., in early life. His father was a tiller of the soil and so was Babe until his work as pitcher for his home town haymakers came to notice. The Pirates team of the Missouri Valley League picked him up in 1905 and he won thirty out of forty games, enough to attract the attention of the St. Louis Cardinals. After spending half of the season on a St. Louis bench he was sent to Louisville and thence to Denver. In the Colorado capital he became a hero, with thirty-eight victories out of fifty games, and Pittsburgh snatched him away for a short trial in 1908. Then again he went to Louisville and pitched so well that he came back to the Pirates to stay.

Remarkable 1909 Work
After his remarkable work in the world's series of 1909, Adams remained for a long time in Pittsburgh, but finally failed in 1917 and departed for the lower leagues. But he pitched remarkably well for Hutchinson of the Western, and Kansas City offered him an opportunity. It was the road back to fame, a road few major leaguers have traveled. The veteran conquered Columbus twice in the season of 1918, allowing one hit each time, to show he was back in form.

The latter part of the season saw him return to the Pirates fold and again there. In his career in the majors he has pitched in 2,475 innings, equal to 275 full games. This season he has participated in the credit for a dozen contests, winning as many as he has lost.

Two Ring Artists Who Will Clash Next Friday Evening at the Willows Arena

BILLY MASCOT AND DANNY EDWARDS

"HAT there will be thrills galore and loads of excitement when Billy Mascot stacks up against Danny Edwards here at the Arena on Friday goes without saying. These boys, who have fought some pretty nice little battles against opponents in the past, will try conclusions here this week against each other. Keen interest is being taken in the scrap, not only by male boxing enthusiasts, but also by many of the fair sex, who will be guests of the Victoria Boxing Association on Friday evening, and will be admitted free to witness the card of pugilistic encounters. The programme will be a heavy one, and with Edwards vs. Mascot as the headliner, and Fielding and Teifer the principals in the semi-windup, the fans undoubtedly will experience a splendid evening.

Dempsey and Wills Agree to Fight in September, 1926

NILES, Mich., Sept. 29.—Harry Wills, a one-time world champion, tonight ended his four-year quest for a heavy-weight championship fight when he agreed to meet Jack Dempsey in a ten-round no-decision contest to be staged at Michigan City in September, 1926.

The match between Dempsey and the negro challenger, agreed upon after a twenty-four-hour conference in South Bend, Indiana, at 5 o'clock tonight, was definitely closed in this city, selected because boxing is legalized in this state.

Promoter, Philadelphia, said that neither Wills nor Dempsey had been guaranteed a cent, and that both will box on percentage, the respective shares of which he declined to reveal. He announced that he had posted $200,000 as a forfeit; that Dempsey had posted $100,000, and that Manager Mullins had put up $50,000 for Wills. Both Wills and Dempsey will receive $25,000 as preliminary expenses. This money was paid them tonight.

Because it is the last meeting of the year and many dull days will be experienced before the winners of 1925 flash past the post, the Colwood Park Association has done well to give special attention to all arrangements. The directors of the association will be in the last of the year, and because it is the last the directors are determined that it shall be the best.

Seven races will be run daily, rain or shine, and in order to collect as much sunshine as possible the first race will start at 2 o'clock. Popular prices will be charged.

The officials of the meet will be as follows:
Steward: Captain Sutton Jones.
Barker: Harry Groucutt.
Paddock Judge: Charles Wilcox.
Prizees and Time: F. Grant.
Vet.: Dr. Hamilton.
Racing Secretary: B. Ives (Mr. Leighton may be back from Calgary in time to assist).
Managing Director: Hon. T. G. Coventry.
Track Superintendent: P. Fox.

Sunday School Hoop League Will Meet Tomorrow in Annual Session

Election of Officials and Plans for Coming Basketball Season to Be Made—Seven Divisions Will Be Run—Games to Be Played in Memorial Hall

The annual meeting of the Sunday School Athletic Association will be held at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year and preparations made for the opening of the league basketball games. Another big entry list is expected this season and all divisions will see keen competition for the championships.

Seven divisions will be run this year as usual, as follows: Junior boys, intermediate B boys, intermediate A, senior men, junior girls, intermediate girls, senior girls.

The seven winning teams in the above divisions will travel to Vancouver at the close of the season to compete for the British Columbia Sunday School League championships.

Outlaws Possess Spalding Cup
Last season the Vancouver winners were entertained here and some thrilling games were witnessed. Probably the most exciting struggle was between the James Bay Outlaws and the Mount Pleasant intermediates, which was won by the Victoria team by one single point in a wonderful rally in the last few minutes. The Outlaws are now the possessors of the handsome Spalding cup, and on doubt the Mainlanders are getting together a formidable array of stars to take this trophy to Vancouver next Spring.

The Victoria girls were successful in winning the Spence Cup again last Spring, defeating the Vancouver Sunday School League winners. The first Presbyterian senior men, although much weaker than in previous years, retained their hold on the British Columbia Sunday School League title by defeating the Do-Dada, of Vancouver.

St. Andrew's intermediate boys made a bold try for the intermediate championship, but were defeated in a hard game by the Crusaders, of St. Andrew's Church, Vancouver, holders of the British Columbia open championship.

Axioms Capture Local Title
The Axioms intermediate girls won the local title but lost to the Pollyannas, of Vancouver, in the British Columbia championship play-off.

All games will likely be played in the Memorial Hall again this season. All churches are asked to send representatives to the annual meeting Thursday night so that the business may be wound up in good time and the leagues got under way as soon as possible.

B.C. University Rugby Schedule May Be Increased

VANCOUVER, Sept. 29.—Plans for an increase in the intercollegiate rugby schedule of the University of British Columbia are under consideration, according to Barre Gault, manager of the varsity squad.

Washington State Normal School of Bellingham wired the university manager yesterday requesting a game there on either October 31 or November 14, to be played under all-American rules.

The latter date will be accepted, an October 31 is the date of the University of Washington game here.

College of Ugent Sound is sending a rugby scout here Saturday to watch the varsity team in action and arrange the weight limit for their game on October 10.

Badminton Notes
The Victoria Badminton Club, at its last meeting decided to amalgamate with the Garrison Badminton Club and play at the Armories two evenings and two afternoons each week. Competitions will begin about the middle of October.

Junior Soccer Game
The Saanich Thistles and the Victoria Junior Thistles eleven will clash in a junior soccer league fixture on Saturday next, at 3 p.m., at Central Park. Saunders will referee.

VERNON, Cal., Sept. 29.—George Godfrey, negro heavyweight, defeated Martin Burke, of New Orleans, in a slow ten-round fight here tonight.

Mid-Week Loop To Plan Soccer Games Tonight

Successful Season Anticipated With Four Teams Participating—Likelihood of Fifth Club Entering

Several Practices Today

Tonight, promptly at 8 o'clock, delegates of the Wednesday Football League will meet in the Tillicum Athletic Clubroom, Broad Street, to decide the destiny of the above soccer league for the coming season. Indications point to a great success for the mid-week soccer body and at present four teams are sure of competing for the soccer championship of the Wednesday league.

The teams which have already sanctioned their entry into the new loop are: Rennie & Taylor, Tillicum, Hudson's Bay and United Services.

It is not known at present whether Kirkham's will make the fifth club but at the last meeting they were represented by Mr. Johnston who stated that he was at all possible to get the players he would like to enter a team.

Rennie & Taylor's Wednesday eleven will meet the Hudson's Bay in a practice match at Beacon Hill today with the kick-off set for 2 p.m., when it is requested that all players will make a special effort to be present.

The Tillicum soccer eleven will hold a practice at Beacon Hill today at 2:30 p.m. All of last year's players and any new men wishing to represent the club in the Wednesday soccer loop are requested to turn out.

Today at 2:45 p.m. at Work Point Barracks the Navy team will play a practice match against the Garrison for the purpose of trying out new players.

Mrs. D. C. Hurd Wins Handily

Philadelphia Golfer Making Big Effort to Retain Title—Canadians Victorious

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, of Philadelphia, today served notice that she will not easily relinquish her title of woman golf champion of America, when she shot the best golf of the day in the first round of the little contest here. She won by the widest margin of the day when she defeated Mrs. Jay Casarid, of Chicago, 7 and 6.

While the champion went out in 37, or three better than par, she did not complete the round for a possible score of around 75. This left the best score for a completed round to Glenn Collet, Providence, a former champion, who not only had the second earliest match in defeating Mrs. Caleb Fox, Philadelphia, 7 and 5, but scored a pair of 29's for her second 78 in two days.

Third honors of the day went to Mrs. Alexa Stirling Fraser, Ottawa, Canada, medalist of the meet with a 77, who had to shoot par 48-41-81, to down Miss Dorothy Klotz, Chicago, by the slender margin of 1 up.

The Canadian contingent lost one of the trio who qualified when Mrs. P. J. Mulqueen, Toronto, yielded 4 and 3 to Mrs. P. C. Latta, Chicago, formerly Western champion.

Another former champion, Edith Cummings, Chicago, won easily today. In addition to Mrs. Fraser, the Dominion had a second promising contender left in Ada Mackenzie, Canadian champion, who recently defeated Mrs. Fraser in the Canadian finals. Miss Mackenzie shot a fine 38, two under par, on the first half, to defeat Mrs. Lee Mids, Chicago, 3 and 2.

R. W. Finlayson Captures Title

TORONTO, Sept. 29.—R. W. Finlayson, of Midland, Ont., swept all before him at the Upper Canada College annual athletic meeting Monday afternoon and won the senior title. He took five firsts and three seconds in winning the senior championship of the college. The junior title honors were divided by R. Walker, Vancouver, and A. Alexander, of New York, the former winning two firsts and two seconds and the latter three firsts, a total of six points each.

Finlayson, who is a member of the Victoria University team, was the only athlete to win more than one title. He was defeated only once, in the 100-yard dash, by A. Alexander, of New York.

Finlayson's victories were in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 880-yard dash, and 1,760-yard dash. He also won the 100-yard relay and the 440-yard relay.

Seven Teams May Play Rugby in Intermediate League This Year

New Zealand Rules Will Be Used in Matches—Season Opens on Saturday, October 17—Schedule to Be Drawn Up Next Week—Keen Interest Displayed

Seven rugby teams may be playing in Victoria this winter in the intermediate rugby league. This fact became known last night at the meeting of the league, which was held in the office of Gordon Campbell in the Central Building. Plans for the season were discussed, and prospects for a successful season are particularly bright.

Keen interest is being displayed by intermediate rugby players here in the playing of this popular sport, and that well-balanced teams will be in the field, with many new faces in the line-ups appears certain.

Three teams right on deck. Bretnwood College, the Normal School and Cowichan have definitely declared they will be right on deck when the season opens on intermediate rugby on the island, Victoria College, J.R.A.A. and Oak Bay Wanderers intend placing fifteens in the intermediate circuit, and efforts are being made to induce the United Services to field a team.

The intermediate league has decided, in line with the senior rugby body in Victoria, to give the New Zealand rules a trial here, and these regulations will be in use in all league matches.

The intermediate league has decided its season on Saturday, October 17, and for the next few months some keen competition will be witnessed on the rugby field when the various clubs in the loop get into action and battle for the honors of the intermediate division.

No Knockout Series. Instead of holding a knockout series this year at the end of the schedule, the team which wins the most games throughout the season will be the champion. The Provincial intermediate rugby league. The local schedule of matches will be drawn up, and the election of league officers take place at a meeting of the league, which will be held next Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock, in Gordon Campbell's office, Central Block.

Tilden Heads Tennis Stars

Suzanne Lenglen, France, Rated at Top of Women Players—Helen Wills Next

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Wm. T. Tilden, American champion, and Suzanne Lenglen, of France, are ranked at the top of the men's and women's tennis world by A. Wallace Myers, British critic, in an international rating cable today to The New York Sun.

Myers included America's Davis Cup quartette in four of the first five places accorded men stars. He also ranks Helen Wills, American women's champion, next to Mlle. Lenglen.

Myers' rankings, recognized as authoritative throughout the tennis world, follow:

Resume Climb

Stocks Sweep Upward at Fast Pace—New High Records Are Established

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Stock prices resumed their advance with vigor today, sweeping upward at a fast pace until the last few minutes of trading when a wave of heavy selling impeded the advance.

Heading the list of new high records were General Motors at 112½, Hudson at 98 and Chrysler at 194½.

Because of unusually heavy dividend and interest disbursements to be made on October 1, money conditions remained tight. Call loans renewed at 5 per cent and subsequently were advanced to 5½ per cent. Time money and commercial paper remained unchanged.

Bond prices again drifted irregularly lower today, reflecting the restrictive influence of stiffer money rates.

Liberal selling developed in a few instances, but buyers were found at the lower levels and price recessions were limited.

DOMINION Bert Lytell, who plays the leading male role opposite Anita Stewart in Peter B. Kyne's story of the South Seas, "Never the Twain Shall Meet," the Cosmopolitan-Metro-Goldwyn production now showing at the Dominion Theatre, has a long list of splendid roles to his credit. As one of the most popular actors of both stage and screen, Mr. Lytell's theatrical career covers almost his entire life. He made his first appearance behind the footlights when he was fourteen years old. At the age of twenty-two he made his theatrical bow to Broadway, where he later appeared in many big successes. He entered the moving picture field several years ago. Among the big films in which he has been featured or starred are "The Right of Way," "To Have and to Hold," "Kick In," "A Son of the Sahara," "The Eternal City," "Born Rich," "Sandra," and others.

CAPITOL Raymond Griffith has been playing almost every conceivable role on the screen but that of a giant. At least, he contends as much. In the National's current offering, "Fine Clothes," at the Capitol Theatre, many contend that this versatile actor has the role ideally fitted him. It is that of a young London shop employee whose secret love for his employer's wife turns him to thievery. Griffith made his stage debut in the same way. He was carried on his shoulders when he was fifteen months old. At seven he

COLUMBIA "Let Women Alone," the THEATRE picture starring Viola Brothers Shore's Saturday Evening Post story "On the Shelf," which is drawing capacity audiences at the Columbia Theatre, terminates its run tonight. This is an amusing and fast-moving comedy-drama dealing with the adventures of a "go-getter" insurance agent, his energetic mother and a capable interior decorator—a woman. The splendid cast is headed by Wanda Hawley and Pat O'Malley and includes Ethel Wales, J. Farrell MacDonald, Harold Gordon, Betty Jane Snowden, Margaret Mason and Lee Willard.
Paul Powell directed.

PLAYHOUSE Cullen Landis, who THEATRE plays in "Born Rich," now showing at the Playhouse Theatre, is one of the finest athletes among the screen stars. He keeps himself in perfect condition wherever he goes to work anywhere from New York to Shanghai, and always takes with him his trainer, Al Boyd. Even during the making of a picture, when his hours are anywhere from five to six in the morning to eight or nine at night, Cullen Landis finds two hours in which to do nothing but to train himself.

COLISEUM Both with the stage and THEATRE screen offering the Coliseum Theatre wins a lot of friends this week. "Stop Thief," one of Percy Hutchinson's farces, proves a wonderful vehicle for the players, and this comedy goes over big with the large audience for the last two days. The excellent musical numbers, in which all members of the company join, were also received with enthusiasm. "Welcome Home" is the screen offering. It is a whole of a comedy-drama worthy to stand beside "Merion of the Movies" and the other money-making stage comedy successes. Lois Wilson, heroine of "The Covered Wagon," heads the cast in this production, which also features Warner Baxter.

Killed in Motor Smash
MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—Bertha Jacques, twenty-six, of Montreal, was instantly killed; Gabrielle Gaiot, twenty-five, also of Montreal, and George Templeton, thirty-two, of Simcoe, Ont., suffered serious injuries which may prove fatal, when the automobile in which they were riding crushed into the retaining wall of a bridge on the King Edward Highway, about fifteen miles from Montreal, last night.

Police Roundup
SWIFT CURRENT, Sept. 29.—In a general roundup here, Provincial police arrested five men and secured a large quantity of goods stolen from a general store at Hutton, Sask. The roundup followed the capture of Aubrey Mitchell when he stepped from a train here. All the men were new clothing, some with price tags still attached.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Lady Cowan, here as a delegate to inter-parliamentary congress in Washington, is making a fight at home against the teaching of Communism to children. She says the Communists have set up Sunday schools all over England.

of Dr. Budd

Lugubrio Sobini, Canadian undertaker, has been left with the tombstone he had ordered for one of his clients, who found a way of dodging death. Dr. Arbutus Budd, of "The Beauty Shop," was to all intents and purposes, confronted with death through the revival of a vendetta in Victoria, and upon the solicitations of Sobini ordered his tombstone, a large white one. But Dr. Budd's beauty preparations converted Natalie, the homely daughter of Garibaldi Pan-tella, into such a wonderful queen that the vendetta was faded, and Dr.
Budd lived to have many more happy days.

Such is the setting in the second and third acts of "The Beauty Shop," which opens tomorrow night at the Royal Victoria Theatre and continues on Friday and Saturday.

The part of Sobini, the doleful under-taker, is played by Mr. Bun Tre-vitt who, in two weeks, has mastered not only the Canadian language but also the calm appearance of the profession into which he has suddenly fallen.

There are so many hilarious, up-lifting and delightful scenes in "The Beauty Shop" that it is impossible to describe them all. One must actually see the famous musical comedy in order to gain its full benefit.

The case is of extraordinary talent. Any person who still holds white tickets for the show is advised to exchange them at the office of the Royal Victoria Theatre at once, if he desires to secure good seats. There has been such a demand for tickets that the seat price for all the performances has been pretty well taken up.

Mr. W. M. Ivel Is Again Chosen
As Candidate

Mr. C. F. Moriarty, speaking as a representative of the voters in Victoria, seconded Mr. Ivel's nomination. He declared that Mr. Ivel had shown himself a friend to trade unionism, and that in consequence of the three thousand members of unions in Victoria would give him support.

Mr. Henry C. Hall, K.C., was nominated by Dr. M. J. Keys. Dr.
Keys declared that he had been placed in a somewhat peculiar and unenviable situation, inasmuch as he had not been notified of the fact that he had been chosen to make the nomination until his arrival at the convention.

Both candidates, before the ballots were circulated, gave five-minute addresses.

Mr. William Ivel
"If you do me the honor of choosing me as your candidate, I am confident that, with your support, I can win the election," said Mr. Ivel. "I can represent the City of Victoria at Ottawa as well as I can ever have represented it here."

Mr. Ivel believed that in view of the fight being waged for equalization of freight rates, and the development that was proceeding in the outer wharf, it was essential that Victoria should be represented in the Dominion Legislature by a Liberal.

Mr. Henry C. Hall, K.C.
Mr. Hall expressed his confidence that the Conservative candidate, Hon. Dr.
Tolmie, could be beaten in Victoria, and he urged all those who were attending the meeting to vote for him for the Liberal cause. "The fight being waged for lower freight rates," he said, "is not a case of the West against the East, but a fight for justice for the West. We are fighting for a great principle."

He believed Victoria was capable of being made a great industrial city, and if justice was secured in connection with transportation charges, and the tariff was made to support business, the city's future development was assured.

while the ballots were being counted, said that he could not sign in the big audience before him of the dire poverty which Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, the Conservative leader, maintained existed in Canada. The Whisper of Death had evidently not penetrated to Victoria.

He considered that the present was a most critical period in the history of Canada. Mr. Meighen had said that the main issue of the forthcoming election was the tariff, but he maintained that the big issue was the

Since the days of Confederation certain influences had worked against unity, and today, he said, some superficial cracks could be seen in the structure representing the Dominion.
Unless the people saw to it that a sound Government was placed in power and sound policies evolved and followed, he was afraid that the fissure would develop. Hon. Mr.
Meighen, he charged, was widening the breaches by setting one part of Canada against another for party advantage.

Work Reviewed
Premier Oliver referred to the published report of Mr. Meighen's Hall-fax address, which said that the Conservative leader had criticized the Mackenzie King Government for interference by order-in-council with the powers of the Railway Commission whereby an order had been issued calling for equalization of rates in the West, without corresponding consideration being shown the Maritime Provinces. Premier Oliver termed Mr. Meighen's statements treacherous and declared they were against the unification of Canada.

He reviewed at some length the work which had been done in British Columbia towards securing lower freight rates and declared that the measure of justice which had been obtained had not been secured at the expense of any other part of the Dominion, but, on the contrary, had had a tendency towards the development of stronger unity.

Canadian Conditions Good
Referring to the Conservative leader's charges that lack of adequate protection was causing business depression throughout Canada, Premier Oliver asked if any distress was apparent in Canadian factories, national banks or business generally. He answered the question himself with an emphatic negative, and added that conditions in Canada were good.

He eulogized the vision of Hon. C.
V. Manney, newly appointed liberal cabinet minister without portfolio, and said that his declaration of what was wrong with Canada was absolute truth. Mr. Manney said recently that the trouble with Canada today was that the two million people engaged in agricultural pursuits had lost their purchasing power to a large extent.

The Premier blamed the Canadian protective policy on the situation.
Costs of production had been increased by the cost of the implements of production that farmers were unable to compete in the world's market. He believed that the announced policy of Right Hon. Mackenzie King to lower the cost of implements of production by decreasing the tariff on foreign goods was a policy that would make for prosperity.

German Scientists May Be Welcomed by Prince

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The question of whether the Prince of Wales, as Viceroy of the British Association, will welcome the German delegates to next year's meeting of the scientists' organization, a subject of discussion for many years, is to be settled during the next few months.

There has been a sharp division of opinion as to whether former enemy nations should be allowed to attend meetings of science, and at recent meetings of the association at Southampton, the committee of recommendation decided by narrow majority in favor of admitting Germans. The general committee, too, decided that invitations next year should be issued, irrespective of the fact that the next move now rests with the general council, which meets in November.
